

ANSWER SHEET EVALUATION (STRENGTHS & GAPS)

Date: 6/4/2026

Student Name: Anshul

Marks: 67/80

Percentage: 84%

Grade: A2

Strong Areas

- Reading Comprehension: The student's ability to understand and interpret the provided passages is commendable. Most responses reflect a good grasp of the content, demonstrating critical thinking in answering questions related to happiness and travel.
- Grammar and Writing Skills: The student's completion of grammatical exercises shows a good understanding of sentence structure and correction tasks. Errors were adequately addressed, indicating an understanding of language mechanics.

Needs Improvement

- Creative Writing: The student's letters and responses in the creative writing section showed potential, but some areas lacked depth and clarity. Additional details and a structured approach could enhance expressiveness.
- Literature Analysis: Responses to literature questions tended to be simplistic and could benefit from deeper analysis and use of textual evidence. More focus on thematic elements and character motivations is needed.

Actionable Feedback

- Practice Writing: Engaging in regular creative writing exercises can help improve the articulation of thoughts and enhance descriptive skills, which is crucial for a more compelling narrative.

ANSWER SHEET EVALUATION (STRENGTHS & GAPS)

- Literature Engagement: Participate in discussions or writing prompts that encourage deeper engagement with literary texts. This can help develop analytical skills and the ability to link themes to broader contexts.

Overall Performance

The student's performance overall reflects a solid understanding of the English curriculum, particularly in reading comprehension and grammar. However, there is room for improvement in creative writing and literature analysis. With a focused approach and practice, the student can enhance their expressiveness and analytical skills, paving the way for greater academic achievement.
